

BAJC News Highlights:

- The BAJC 4th Conference was successfully held at Hobart on 22 February 2016. There were more than 30 participants presented their research work. A Conference dinner was followed for all attendees to celebrate a successful day of presentations. There were 4 presenters received “Best Presentation” award at dinner – images included on the second page.
- The BAJC Board meeting was also held on 22 February 2016. The Board members discussed the Development of BAJC 2.0 Agreement. Prof Anton Middelberg, on behalf of the Board, thanked Prof Max Lu for his contributions to BAJC over the years.
- The BAJC Annual Project Review and TAC Meeting were conducted on 23 February. All Chief Investigators presented and reported their project progress. Project Review Notification letters were distributed to all CIs.
- Round 5 Projects have now commenced in 2016.
- The BAJC second phase Agreement 2.0 was signed on 23 March, at Baosteel Tower, Pudong, Shanghai, China – images included on the third page.

BAJC Visitors:

- A group of Hesteel Group CO., LTD delegations visited the Centre on 29 March to conduct meetings and further discussions of collaborative work between Hesteel and The University of Queensland.
- CEO of Neusoft Co. Ltd, China, visited the Centre in March and had meeting with Centre director, Prof Geoff Wang. Prof Wang gave him brief introduction of centre research and collaborative works.

BAJC Conference Images

Caption 1: Welcome speech by Prof Max Lu

Caption 2: Opening address by President Pijun Zhang

Caption 3: Best Presentation Awards at Conference dinner

BAJC 2.0 Agreement Signing Ceremony Images

Image 01.jpg - Caption: Meeting between Australian delegation with Baosteel representatives in the Signing Ceremony in Baosteel Tower Shanghai on 23 March 2016.

Image 02.jpg - Caption: President and Vice-Chancellor of the University of Queensland Prof Peter Høj met with President of Baosteel Group & Chairman of Baoshan Iron & Steel Co., Ltd Mr Derong Chen in the Signing Ceremony in Baosteel Tower Shanghai on 23 March 2016.